
DiAE
Delaware Institute for the Arts in Education

OUR MISSION

Inspire the artist within each student through the visual and performing arts in the classroom and beyond by:

- Engaging all art forms with cross-disciplinary learning.
- Connecting professional artists with students and educators.
- Offering programs that foster discovery, learning beyond the classroom, and understanding of one’s place in the world.

OUR PROGRAMS

DELAWARE WOLF TRAP EARLY LEARNING THROUGH THE ARTS

K-12 ARTIST RESIDENCIES

TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

EVERY PROGRAM IS:

- Tailored to the Curriculum
- Created Collaboratively
- Standards Based
- Led by Teaching Artists
- Executed During the School Day

OUR PROGRAMS HAVE IMPACTED...

2025-2026

STUDENTS	TEACHERS & AIDES
2,778	443
CLASSROOMS	HOURS OF ARTS LEARNING
150	999.5

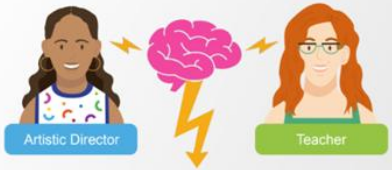
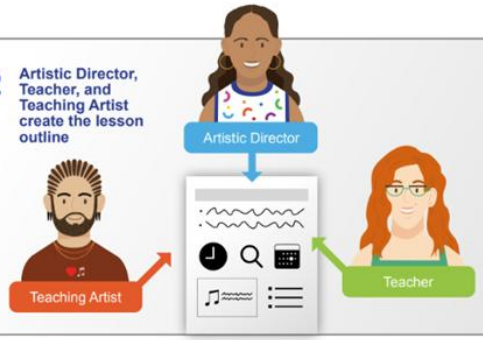
Collaboration in DiAE Residency

A DiAE Residency is a high-touch process including the ideas and contributions of the classroom teacher, a teaching artist, and DiAE Executive Director, Artistic Director, and Program Coordinator.

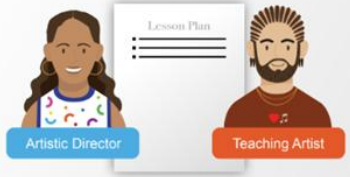
1 Artistic Director and Teacher brainstorm ideas for the residency



2 Artistic Director, Teacher, and Teaching Artist create the lesson outline



3 Artistic Director and Teaching Artist hone the lesson plan



4 Teacher and Executive Director co-write and submit a grant to the state arts agency

5 Teaching Artist and Teacher lead the lesson with coaching from the Artistic Director

6 Program Coordinator meets with Teacher to complete post-residency evaluation

DiAE + High Road School

Puppetry Residency

Thank you!

Nn Oo Pp Qq Rr Ss Tt Uu Vv
Sunday
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
YESTERDAY WAS: Sunday
TODAY IS: Monday
TOMORROW WILL BE: Absent

DiAE

Delaware Institute for the Arts in Education

Please visit us at www.diae.org
1200 N. French St., Rm. 313
Wilmington, DE 19801

Delaware Institute for the Arts in Education is supported, in part, by a funding from the Delaware Division of the Arts, a state agency, in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts. The Division promotes Delaware arts events on DelawareScene.com.

Delaware Division of the Arts