(a) For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall include information: (i) that is not known by actual or potential competitors of the Disclosing Party or is generally unavailable to the public; (ii) that has been created, discovered or developed by, or otherwise become known to, the Disclosing Party or in which property rights have been assigned or otherwise conveyed to the Disclosing Party; and (iii) that has material economic value or potential material economic value to the Disclosing Party's present or future business. Confidential Information shall include trade secrets which include all discoveries, developments, designs, improvements, inventions, formulas, software programs, processes, techniques, know-how, negative know-how, data, research, technical data (whether or not patentable or registerable under patent, copyright or similar statutes, and including all rights to obtain, register, perfect, and enforce those proprietary interests) and any other Intellectual Property, customer and supplier lists, price lists, business plans, and any modifications or enhancements of any of the foregoing, and all program, marketing, sales, or other financial or business information disclosed to the Receiving Party by the Disclosing Party, either directly or indirectly, in writing or orally or by drawings or observation, which has actual or potential economic value to the Disclosing Party, any other information that is treated as confidential, regardless of whether it is marked as such, and any other information that a reasonable party would conclude is confidential or proprietary in nature. Confidential Information shall also include, without limitation, employee information not otherwise defined as Protected Health Information by 45 C.F.R. § 160.103, analyses, forecasts, studies, summaries, marketing plans, financial data, business statistics, property, contracts, methods, transactions, affairs, concepts, ideas, services, products, images, graphics, text, audio, video, software and other data, knowledge, content or information in written, oral, visual and/or physical/sample form.

- (c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, portions of Confidential Information may be disclosed pursuant to the request of a governmental agency or third party if such disclosure is required by operation of law, regulation or court order, provided the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party prompt written notice of such proposed disclosure in order to enable the Disclosing Party to obtain an appropriate protective order, if it so desires. If a deadline exists for the disclosure pursuant to a freedom of information/sunshine law, the Receiving Party may disclose the Confidential Information in accordance with the deadline regardless of any action taken by the Disclosing Party.
- (d) The Receiving Party shall hold and maintain the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party in strictest confidence and in trust for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Disclosing Party. The Receiving Party shall not, without the prior written approval of the Disclosing Party, use for its own benefit, publish or otherwise disclose to others, or permit the use by others for their benefit or to the detriment of the Disclosing Party, any of the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party.

- (e) The Receiving Party understands and acknowledges that any disclosure or misappropriation of any of the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party in violation of this Agreement may cause the Disclosing Party irreparable harm, and that monetary damages may not be a sufficient remedy. Thus, the Receiving Party agrees that the Disclosing Party shall have the right to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order restraining any such disclosure or misappropriation and for such other relief as the Disclosing Party shall deem appropriate, and the Receiving Party expressly agrees that the Disclosing Party shall be entitled, in addition to any other remedy provided by law, to seek an injunction or other equitable remedy respecting such violation or continued violation. Such right is to be in addition to the remedies otherwise available to the Disclosing Party at law or in equity. If any action at law or in equity is brought to enforce or interpret the provisions of this Section, the prevailing Party in such action shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees.
- (f) Upon request, the Receiving Party shall promptly return to the Disclosing Party any and all records, notes and other written, printed or tangible materials pertaining to the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party.

6. Representations of the Parties; Disclaimer.

6.1 Each Party represents that (a) it has the necessary and actual right and authority to enter into and to perform its obligations under this Agreement, (b) it has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize the execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement, (c) this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation enforceable against the Party in accordance with its terms, and (d) it will perform its obligations under this Agreement in a manner that complies with all laws applicable to such Party.

6.2 Employer represents that (a) Employer has sought its own legal advice with respect to the use of the Services as part of a wellness program, if applicable; and (b) that Teladoc Health has not provided Employer with advice regarding the legality of any of its wellness programs or use of the Services for such wellness programs.

6.3 Each Party represents that it will maintain such insurance coverage as is reasonably necessary to support its respective obligations under this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Teladoc Health acknowledges that the Employer may meet its aforementioned obligations by self-insurance.

Specifically, Teladoc Health represents that during the Term, it will maintain the following minimum types and amounts of insurance in the provision of the Services, with carriers having an AM Best Rating of A- or better:

Upon request, Teladoc Health will provide Employer with a certificate evidencing the above insurance coverage and naming the Employer as an additional insured with respect to the general liability coverage.

6.4 Employer acknowledges and agrees that except as may be explicitly set forth in this Agreement, Teladoc Health has made no representations, and has expressly disclaimed to the maximum extent permitted by law, all warranties or representations of every kind or nature, either implied or statutory, as to the Services, including without limitation, any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or title.

7. Indemnification; Limitations of Liability.

7.1 Each Party agrees that it is solely liable for any breach, misrepresentation, error or omission by its employees, agents and representatives concerning the Services or otherwise made by such Party in fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement. Each Party agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other Party and its affiliates, and their directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, successors and assigns, from and against any loss, cost, damage or expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs, arising out of any error, omission or malfeasance of such breaching Party.

7.2 Each Party's total liability (including the liability of any of its officers, employees, or agents) relating to claims for damages arising from or relating to the performance of this Agreement shall be limited to direct (reasonably foreseeable) damages and shall in no event exceed twice the amount of Fees paid by Employer during the Term; provided, however, that:

- (a) Teladoc Health's total obligation for any claim arising from (i) a breach of the Protected Health Information; Confidential Information Section of the Agreement or (ii) from a claim for liability asserted by a third party relating to the performance of this Agreement shall in no event exceed $5 million; and
- (b) in the event of a decision of liability attributed to both Parties, each Party's obligation will be limited by its relative fault as compared to the other Party or a third party in such matter.

Each Party expressly waives any right to seek consequential, indirect, punitive, or special damages for claimed losses arising from or relating to the performance of this Agreement from the other Party including, without limitation, claims for loss of business, data, revenue, profits, or goodwill, even if the Parties have knowledge of the possibility of such damages and whether or not such damages are foreseeable.

8. Data Transmission Security. Data transmission security is the process of sending data from one computer system to another in a secure manner so that only the intended recipient of the data receives the data and the data sent is identical to the data received. When ePHI (Electronic Protected Health Information) is transmitted over an electronic communications network i.e. "the internet", transmissions of ePHI to and from Teladoc Health will utilize Secure File Transport Protocol (SFTP).

Employer is expressly prohibited from indirectly or directly, knowingly violating or attempting to violate the security of Teladoc Health's web sites, including, without limitation, accessing data not intended for such user or logging into a server or account which user is not authorized to access, attempting to probe, scan or test the vulnerability of the system or network or to breach security or authentication measures, scanning or testing the performance of the system or network, attempting to interfere with service to any user, host or network, including, without limitation, via means of submitting a virus or "trojan horse" to the Web site, overloading, "flooding", "mail bombing" or "crashing", or sending unsolicited electronic mail, including promotions and/or advertising of products or services. Violations of system or network security may result in civil or criminal liability. Teladoc Health will investigate occurrences that may involve such violations and may involve, and cooperate with, law enforcement authorities in prosecuting users who are involved in such violations.

9. Publicity. Teladoc Health may use Employer's trade name and logo on Teladoc Health's standard sales-deck and customer list(s) solely to indicate, during the Term, Employer's status as a customer of Teladoc Health, without other indications of endorsement. All other use of Employer's trade name, trademark, service mark, or symbol in Teladoc Health's advertising, publicity or other promotional endeavors requires the prior written consent of Employer.

10. Dispute Resolution. Prior to the institution of formal court action, the Parties agree that any claim or controversy arising from this Agreement shall be considered and addressed by one representative from Teladoc and one representative from the Employer at a meeting held upon at least five business days' advance notice from the complaining Party. Such meeting shall be held at a neutral location agreeable to the Parties or via a virtual platform such as Microsoft Teams or Zoom. If the claim or controversy is not resolved by the representatives at such meeting or within five business days thereafter, either Party may proceed with court action.

11. Miscellaneous.

This Agreement (including any Exhibits or attachments hereto) constitutes the entire agreement by and between Teladoc Health and Employer relating in any manner of its subject matter, and any representation, warranty, covenant, understanding or agreement not contained or incorporated in it by reference shall be of no force or effect. This Agreement supersedes all prior proposals, discussions, writings, and agreements between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may only be modified in writing, signed by an authorized representative of each Party. This Agreement is intended to be performed in accordance with and only to the extent permitted by all applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations. In the event any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not invalidate or render unenforceable the entire Agreement, but rather this Agreement shall be construed as if not containing the particular invalid or unenforceable provision or provisions, and the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be construed and enforced accordingly.

11.2 Waiver. Any failure on the part of a Party to comply with any of its obligations, agreements, or responsibilities under this Agreement may be waived by the other Party to whom such compliance is owed. In executing this Agreement, the Parties do not intend to create third-party beneficiary rights in anyone not a Party to the Agreement.

11.4 Force Majeure. Neither Party shall have liability to the other as a result of a Force Majeure Event; provided, however, that the non-performing Party uses commercially reasonable efforts to avoid or remove such causes of nonperformance and restores performance as soon as such causes are removed. For purposes of this Agreement, “Force Majeure Event” means an event not reasonably foreseeable, beyond a Party’s reasonable control, and occurring without its fault or negligence, including, without limitation (a) an act of nature, such as fire, flood, earthquake, storm, tornado, lightning, landslide, sink hole, or outbreak of disease, (b) a service failure caused by third parties, such as a power or utility outage or a labor dispute affecting suppliers or subcontractors, (c) a civil disruption such as war, invasion, insurrection, trade embargo, or activities by terrorists or public enemies, or (d) action by a governmental body that enjoins or prevents performance by a Party.

Teladoc Health and Employer shall be referred to herein as the “Parties” and each individually as a “Party”.

I. Introduction

- A. Teladoc Health provides a suite of telehealth services, as more fully described below (collectively, the “Teladoc Services”), and has entered into a contract with one or more professional associations that employ and/or contract with physicians (collectively, the “Provider”), and for which Teladoc Health provides various operational and administrative services to the Provider. The physicians who are employed by, or under a contractual arrangement with, the Provider form a network that is designed to facilitate medical consultations provided by a physician who provides patient care, via telephone or web-based video, for another physician when the other physician is not available (“Cross-Coverage Consultation(s)”) to individuals and groups desiring to purchase such Cross-Coverage Consultations. The arrangement between Teladoc Health and the Provider permits Teladoc Health to offer a program to its customers that consists of: (a) a network of providers who provide medical consultations via telephone or web-based video; and (b) support for the operation and administration of that network, as further described herein.
- B. Employer desires to purchase the Teladoc Services for use by certain of its employees, retirees under the age of 65 (“Employees”) and their spouses and eligible dependents (“Eligible Dependents”) as an additional benefit in connection with Employer’s employee benefits program. “Eligible Dependent” means a “dependent,” as defined under the Internal Revenue Code, I.R.C. § 152, or as may be mutually agreed between the Parties. Employees and Eligible Dependents are collectively and each referred to as “Member(s)”.

II. Term and Termination

- A. This Exhibit commences on the Effective Date and will continue in force for an initial term that will end on the third anniversary of the Effective Date (“Initial Term”), unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section II(B) below. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, at the expiration of the Initial Term, the Agreement will be extended automatically on a year-to-year basis for a maximum of three (3) additional years, unless either Party has given written notice to the other at least 60 days prior to the scheduled expiration of the Agreement of its election not to extend the Agreement. Any extensions of this Agreement past the Initial Term are referred to as “Renewal Term”. The Initial Term and any Renewal Terms of this Agreement are collectively referred to as the “Term.”
- B. In addition to the termination provisions outlined in Section 2 of the Agreement, either Party may terminate the Agreement for convenience on each anniversary of the Effective Date by providing 60 days’ advance written notice to the other Party.

“Consultation” means a unit of the Teladoc Services for a Member (for example, an instance of General Medical Cross-Coverage Consultation).

Those steps include: (i) completing a comprehensive electronic health record (“EHR”), either online or by telephone with a designated Teladoc Health representative (It being understood that, in the event the Member fails to complete the EHR, the Member will not have access to the Physicians, and Teladoc Health will so advise the Member when he/she accesses the Teladoc Services); (ii) agreeing to Teladoc Health’s Terms and Conditions confirming an understanding that the Provider is not obligated to accept the Member as a patient, and that the Member’s participation in the Teladoc Services may be cancelled at any time without recourse by the Member; and (iii) the Member also understands and acknowledges that the Teladoc Services provide Cross-Coverage Consultations when the Member’s primary care physician is not accessible. IV. Eligibility and Fees

- A. Eligibility Files. By the 1st day of each month, Employer, or its third party administrator, shall deliver to Teladoc Health an accurate file identifying the number of Employees eligible to utilize the Teladoc Services in that month (the "Eligibility File") and their applicable contact information, in a format approved by Teladoc Health. If Employer, or its third party administrator, fails to deliver the Eligibility File by the 1st day of the month, then the last valid Eligibility File delivered to Teladoc Health will be deemed to be the Eligibility File for that month. Alternatively and as applicable, Employer may either provide Eligibility File information via Teladoc Health's Client Site portal, or via a Real Time Eligibility (RTE) process, as mutually agreed by the Parties. If Employer subsequently requests a modification to their method of delivering Eligibility File information, Teladoc Health may charge the Employer an additional fee of two hundred dollars ($200) per hour, times that number of hours necessary to effect such modification.
- B. Fees.
1. Employer agrees to pay Teladoc Health the following fees (collectively, the "Fee"):
 - i. a recurring PEPM Fee of US $1.99 for each Employee eligible to utilize the Teladoc Services each month.
 - ii. The PEPM Fee includes an assumption of up to 30% annual utilization of the General Medical Services (the "Utilization Target"). If actual annualized utilization exceeds the current year's Utilization Target, the PEPM Fee shall increase for the next Renewal Term by $0.25 for each 5% increment of utilization in excess of the Utilization Target. In addition, a new Utilization Target will be set for the next Renewal Term by rounding up the actual annualized utilization to the nearest 5%. For example, where the Utilization Target for the current year is 40%, if actual annualized utilization in that year is 43%, the Utilization Target for the following year will be increased to 45% and the PEPM Fee for the following year will increase by $0.25.
 2. The Fee is based on approximately 1,130 Employees in the Eligibility File each month.
 3. With 60 days' advance written notice to Employer, the PEPM Fee set forth above may be increased on each anniversary of the Effective Date by five (5%) percent rounded to the nearest penny if the Teladoc Health book of business pricing is being increased as a result of overall book of business results, even if actual utilization does not exceed the Utilization Target.
 4. The total amount payable under this Agreement by Employer shall not exceed thirty-two thousand dollars ($32,000.00) per year unless mutually agreed upon by both Parties in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties agree that the Fee is subject to increase in the event that the employee count changes and/or annual utilization exceeds the amounts stated above.
- C. Payment of Fees.
1. Teladoc Health will submit an invoice to Employer on the 4th day of each month based on the Eligibility File delivered by Employer to Teladoc Health for that month ("Invoice"), and Employer agrees to pay such Invoice by the last day of that month. Notwithstanding the foregoing, should Employer determine an error was made in the Eligibility File, Employer may request a credit, not to exceed 5% of the monthly PEPM Fees paid by Employer to Teladoc Health for the corresponding month as soon as practicable and in no event later than ninety (90) days after the end of the month to which the PEPM Fee pertains.

2. If applicable, Teladoc Health will submit an Invoice to Employer for Physician Consult Fees on the 1st day of each month with respect to Consultations that occurred within the prior thirty (30) day period, and Employer agrees to pay such Invoice by the last day of that month; provided, however, that if claims are sent via EDI 837 file transfer, Teladoc Health will submit an 837 transaction file for any Physician Consult Fee to the applicable healthcare payer.
