

EDtv Quarterly Report

June 10, 2022

Hello,

Below you will be informed of everything that has transpired for EDtv during the last quarter: from programming updates, news and noteworthy information, as well as how we have impacted the community.

Programming Update

- The Three R's – about curriculum and instruction in schools with teachers and admin. Talking about issues and the best practices for parents to learn what their children are learning in schools.
- Red Clay Cook-Off Family Style: An Original Show produced by EDtv – takes a look at healthy meals and brings in guests such as students, teachers, parents, and special guests to cook and learn alongside RC Nutrition Manager/Host Jessica Terranova. New episodes to film this summer
- The Good Stuff: is airing a new episode that highlights events from the second half of the school year. We are in pre-production on a new episode with short docs about the HCS #107 walk, the Joseph Johnson school naming, SRO of the year, Lewis Dual Language School namesake daughter visit, and more
- This Day In History
- New weekly episodes of our Mindfulness Programming

News and Noteworthy Updates

- New broadcast hardware has been installed
- New talk show featuring teachers of the year current and past about the state of Education.
- Redesigning the Education Station for the fall
- Looking to rebrand EDtv as we come up on the 10 year anniversary.

Thank you,

Robert Markopoulos
Executive Producer, EDtv
