WHEREAS, in 1994, City Council passed legislation that created the Wilmington Advisory Commission on Youth and Their Families, which included the Wilmington Youth Leadership Commission (“WYLC”), under the Department of Parks and Recreation; and

WHEREAS, WYLC consisted of 35 youth members from grades 9–12, and acted in an advisory capacity to the Mayor, City Council, and the departments and agencies of the City; and

WHEREAS, in its advisory capacity, WYLC assisted the City in its efforts to develop and promote initiatives and programs which addressed the needs of City youth and their families; and

WHEREAS, in or around 2020, Parks and Recreation accepted $1 million in grant funds from the U.S. Department of Justice to provide funding to for a program known as the Wilmington Youth Leadership Incubator Program (“WYLIP”) for 5 years commencing in Fiscal Year 2020; and

WHEREAS, WYLIP’s focus was to further the DOJ’s mission to reduce crime and promote public safety by providing funding to states and other localities to address juvenile delinquency and improve the juvenile system; and

WHEREAS, the WYLC became defunct in 2019 due to Parks and Recreation’s WYLIP implementation in 2020; and

WHEREAS, WYLIP was funded by federal grants through Fiscal Year 2025;
and

WHEREAS, WYLIP exhausted its funds and no additional funds are available to continue; and

WHEREAS, City Council desires to establish a Youth Leadership Council under the auspices of City Council; and

WHEREAS, the primary objective of the Youth Leadership Council will be to formulate a “Youth Master Plan” that provides a comprehensive vision and plan for the City’s youth; and

WHEREAS, several cities across the country, including Alexandria, Virginia, New Orleans, Louisiana, and San Jose, California, have established similar youth leadership councils to formulate a “Youth Master Plan”; and

WHEREAS, City Council deems it necessary and appropriate to repeal the Wilmington Youth Leadership Commission as it is defunct and establish the Wilmington Youth Advisory Council as set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF
