Why are we here today?

If one of these guys were your son, or your father, or your husband, what recourse do you have?

Can you obtain a police report, suggest witnesses?

Do you have the ultimate right to review evidence like body worn camera footage?

What legal rights do you have in this process?

You wouldn't have any rights.
Just a funeral to plan.

What is to be done?

What we are demanding right now

Dr. Tanya Whittle

Within the city control

- External Independent Audit of WPD
- Expand the concept of alternative response (i.e. Partners in Care) and bring it in-house with public transparency and democratic oversight
- Pass an ordinance requiring specific, detailed reporting provided at regular intervals

Influence state legislators

- Demand state law allow for independent investigation of police by the Inspector General including subpoena powers and discipline
- Reform LEOBOR to make police misconduct records public
- Overhaul the Police Accountability Boards
- Create a clear consistent process for the public to obtain BWC footage – even during a criminal investigation

What is to be done?

Embrace the moral imperative of the moment.

Act with urgency.

Don't negotiate away your control.
